STEEL STRIKE TO CONTINUE REPORT SAYS

Washington (AP)—The steel strike was considered certain today to continue at least another week even if President Truman moved to the will of Congress and asked a court to order the men back to work.

There was no firm indication, however, how the President would react to yesterday's House request—paralleling a previous one from the Senate—that he use the Taft-Hartley Labor Law to end the striking, 24-day strike.

The walkout of about 650,000 CIO steelworkers has already cost more than six million tons of steel.

The law calls for a board of inquiry, appointed by the President, to look into the issues involved in a dispute and make a report to the White House. Not until that has happened—and customarily it takes at least a week—can the President ask a court to issue an order banning continuation of the strike for 80 days.

The steelworkers' union, it was learned, is considering an attack on the steel industry through the same Taft-Hartley Law.

The act makes it an unfair labor practice not to bargain collectively. The union questions whether the steel companies have, in fact, bargained in good faith.

The union was reliably reported to have reached a tentative agreement on a new contract late last week with Bethlehem Steel, second biggest producer. The tentative accord, these reports said, was (Turn to Page Eighteen)

Jury Convicts Man From Co. on Charge Of Manslaughter

MY HOLLY, N. J. (AP)—Air Force Sgt. Donald H. Gardner, of Clearmont, Pa., convicted of manslaughter for the fatal beating of a child, is scheduled to be sentenced July 17.

A jury of six men and six women deliberated two hours before returning the verdict Tuesday night against the Fort Dix airman who originally was charged with murder.

Burlington County Judge Lester A. Drenk ordered Gardner returned to jail pending the sentencing.

The maximum sentence for manslaughter is 10 years in prison, a $10,000 fine or both.

Gardner was arrested last March in connection with the death of Lily Allison Bozynowski, 18-month-old daughter of Lily Belle Bozynowski, with whom he had been living in a Brown Mills trailer camp.

BANG-UP SEASON FOR BASS IS PREDICTED

Harrisburg (AP)—The head of Pennsylvania's Fish Commission is predicting a bang-up season on bass when the season opens July 1.

Executive Director C. A. French said a good stocking program plus "excellent spawning seasons" have provided conditions that may see even the banner 1951 season eclipsed in catches.

The good crop in waterways now, he said, is the result of stream stocking which saw more than a half million bass released in the past few years.

"Both warden and fishermen from all over the state reported the season closed last year with more small-mouth black bass in the streams than at any time on record," French said.

Nine inches is the legal size for black bass with the day's catch limited to six. One day's limit of six bass also is the possession limit.

The season runs from July 1 through November 30.

SOCIALISTS IN LEAD IN NETHERLANDS VOTE

Amsterdam, The Netherlands, (AP)—Socialists nosed into the lead as The Netherlands' strongest political party for the first time in history today as parliamentary election returns gave them three new seats and a gain over 1948 voting of almost 300,000 votes.

The popular balloting yesterday filled the 100 seats in the national Parliament's lower house. Today, provincial legislatures sitting as electoral colleges choose the 50 members of the upper chamber.

On the basis of his party's triumph, Socialist Leader Dr. Willem Drees was expected to be designated again by Queen Juliana to form a new Cabinet. Drees has been Premier of the out-going Labor-Catholic coalition Cabinet.

Puerto Rican Will Die for Shooting Blair House Guard

Washington (AP)—Aug. 1 was set today as the execution date for Oscar Collazo, the Puerto Rican who tried to kill President Truman nearly 20 months ago.

Collazo, unsuccessful in appeals from conviction of murder of a White House guard, was brought into U. S. District Court and told of the time fixed for him to die in the electric chair.

The little Puerto Rican fanatic, neatly dressed in a brown suit and wearing a red tie, never uttered a word during the brief proceeding before Judge F. Dickenson Lettis.

Leo A. Rover, court appointed chief counsel for Collazo, asked "for a little more time," but Lettis denied the plea.

Rover said friends of Collazo want to appeal to President Truman for clemency.

Only the President could now save Collazo from the chair.

Collazo, 38, was a member of a Puerto Rican group warring independently for the island.

On Nov. 1, 1950, he and a companion suddenly pulled guns in front of Blair House, then the President's temporary residence during repairs to the White House, and attempted to rush the door.

There was a brief but furious gun fight with guards. Truman, napping in an upstairs bedroom, awakened and looked out a window in time to see his conclusion.

Collazo's partner, Griselio Torresola, was killed and Collazo was wounded. Three White House guards were wounded and one, Pvt. Leslie Coffelt, later died.

Collazo was convicted of murder of Coffelt. He was originally sentenced to die Oct. 26, 1951, but the execution date was postponed indefinitely as the case went through appeals courts.

Control Measure Faces Final Roll Call in House Today

Washington (AP)—The administration's stripped-to-a-skeleton controls bill faced final roll-call tests in the House today.

And administration leaders had little hope of restoring the major control powers peeled away by a coalition of Republicans and Southern Democrats in a week of heated debate.

There was one exception: Republican Leader Martin of Massachusetts told newsmen he thought the House might reverse yesterday's 118 to 87 decision to end wage and price controls July 31.

Rep. Barden (D-N. C.) sponsored this amendment. Martin, who opposed it, said a Senate-House conference committee probably would knock it out of the final bill even if the House didn't cancel yesterday's tentative vote.

Even without the Barden amendment, however, the bill—originally drawn to continue President Truman's wage, price and rent and other control powers for a year—has been so sharply whittled by the House that some members said they'd be surprised if it wasn't sent back to committee.

BLACK MARKET BABIES ARE OFFERED IN STATE

Philadelphia (AP)—Walter P. Townsend, general secretary of the Children's Aid Society of Pennsylvania, charges black-market babies are being offered for sale through mail order ads in up-state Pennsylvania.

Adoption agencies in Philadelphia and eight surrounding counties are represented by the aid society.

Unofficial reports, Townsend said yesterday, claim that babies have been purchased for adoption outside normal legal channels for as high as $1,000 each.

MALIK THREATENS TO INVOKE THE VETO

United Nations, N. Y. (AP)—Russia's Jacob A. Malik has indicated he will invoke the Big Power veto in the U. N. Security Council germ warfare debate.

The Soviet delegate tipped his position yesterday. He argued that the veto can be applied to an American proposal to transfer to the U. N. Disarmament Commission a Russian appeal for the United States and other countries to ratify the 1925 Geneva protocol outlawing bacteriological warfare.

BULLETIN

Denver (AP)—Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge (R-Mass.) announced today Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower will move to Chicago next week to set up campaign headquarters for the Republican presidential nomination. Lodge, the general's campaign manager, said Eisenhower would continue to meet with the Republican delegates to the national convention.

By The Associated Press
While one of Gen. Dwight Eisenhower's aides said "the jig is up" for Sen. Robert Taft, another reported today Eisenhower will go to the Republican National Convention to direct his campaign for presidential nomination.

The "jig is up" quote came from Eisenhower's campaign manager, Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., of Massachusetts, who flew to Denver yesterday for a conference with the retired five-star general.

It was quickly attacked by Taft's campaign manager, David Ingalls, who said bluntly: "It just isn't so."

The report that Eisenhower has decided to take on-the-spot charge of his bid at the July 7 GOP convention came from a source in his headquarters. The source declined to be named and would not say when Eisenhower planned to head for Chicago.

The Associated Press tabulation of pre-convention delegate strength with all 1,206 GOP delegates named, now shows Taft has the support of 483 to Eisenhower's 405. Others have a total of 129 and there are 189 in dispute or uncommitted.

This tabulation, like that in the Democratic race, is based on avowed and conceded alignments.

As the GOP convention neared—it opens a week from Monday—and Taft and Eisenhower stepped up their fight, some minds were being changed among the state delegations.

Eisenhower may have something to say about whether he will go to Chicago when he makes a domestic policy speech tonight CBS-radio 9:30 p. m. EST in the Denver Coliseum.

Taft said today the political organization of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York now is running Eisenhower's campaign. He also said that if Eisenhower should be nominated by the Republicans, he probably would lose the November election if he "conducts the kind of campaign his backers apparently want him to."

The Democratic race was being run on many fronts. Two states were electing delegations at conventions today—New Mexico and Mississippi—and the three top contenders were ranging all over the country. There was also more talk about two men—Illinois Gov. Adlai Stevenson and Federal Security Administrator Oscar Ewing—who have been widely discussed as targets for possible drafts for nomination.

CONTRIVERSIAL BILL IS ON SECOND TRIP

Washington (AP)—The hotly controversial McCarran-Walter immigration bill—vetoed by President Truman as dangerous to this country's moral leadership for peace—started a second trip through Congress today.

The House scheduled a roll call vote on overriding or sustaining the President's veto as soon as the controls bill was out of the way, perhaps late this afternoon.

It was anybody's guess which way the vote would go. The House passed the bill originally 208 to 68—a margin well over two-thirds necessary to override a veto. But that was on a standing vote, with no names recorded.

INGRID TO FIGHT
Rome (AP)—Ingrid Bergman announced today she has hired Hollywood lawyer Jerry Giesler to "fight to the end" to bring her 13-year-old daughter to visit her in Italy. A Los Angeles judge ruled Tuesday against Miss Bergman's application for a visit by her daughter Pia Jenny Ann Lindstrom.

Blazing Heat Wave Keeps Up Relentless Siege Throughout the Eastern Section

Widow of General Pendleton, Mother Of Warren Woman, Dies in California

Portrait Photograph by Saylor
Mrs. Joseph H. Pendleton

Affectionately known as "Aunt Mary" to Marines all along the West Coast, Mary Fay Pendleton, aged 88, widow of the late Major General Joseph H. Pendleton, USMC, and mother of Mrs. Helen Pendleton Rockwell, Warren, died in her sleep late Wednesday in the Coronado Hospital, Coronado, California.

During the intervening years since General Pendleton's death in 1942, "Aunt Mary" has been a frequent visitor to Camp Pendleton, the largest Marine base in the world, and which perpetuates his memory. Her friends were legion among Marine officers and enlisted men alike. Their final tribute to this grand old lady will be paid on Saturday when funeral services in San Diego will be handled by them and by the San Diego American Legion Auxiliary, of which Mrs. Pendleton was organizing president. Commitment will be made in the Military Cemetery at Point Loma beside the late General.

The Aunt Mary Pendleton Room in the American Legion Building at San Diego is draped in black today.

As wife of one of the Marine Corps' most famous generals, Mrs. Pendleton became acquainted, during her life, with the great and the small. It was, while serving off Malta, early in his Marine Corps career, that General Pendleton began a lasting friendship with the late King George V of England, then a lieutenant serving aboard one of Her Majesty's warships. It was at the insistence of Gen. Pendleton that the great base, later named in his honor, was built on the West Coast.

As the daughter of one of the professors at the United States Naval Academy in Annapolis, Mrs. Pendleton (then May Helen Fay) met her husband when he was a (Turn to Page Eighteen)

Steel Strike Estimated to Have Cost Union Workers $253,000,000 in Wages

Pittsburgh (AP)—The great steel strike of 1952 already has cost Philip Murray's 650,000 idle steelworkers about $253 million dollars in wages.

As the strike goes into its 25th day with little sign of a break there are reports of increasing hardship from all sections of the country.

Layoffs in allied industries are increasing almost hourly. In addition to the 650,000 striking steelworkers from coast to coast the latest survey shows that 216,320 workers in allied industries either have been laid off or ordered not to report for work after July 3. The number of workers in allied industries already off the payroll is 166,820.

Heavy layoffs are starting in the auto industry. About 30,000 Michigan auto workers alone face immediate or early layoffs. General Motors has expanded its layoff program to include plants at Saginaw after previously announcing furlough schedules for Flint and Detroit plants.

Some plants are advancing vacation schedules hoping that the strike will be settled in the meantime.

Some 1,600 strikers in the Canton and Youngstown, O., area, where about 45,000 steelworkers are idle, have applied for relief.

At Duquesne, Pa., a steel community of 6,500 near Pittsburgh, the City Council declared a state of emergency. Mayor Frank Krupar sent letters to company and union officials and to President Truman urging that the mills get back in operation.

CHINESE ARE DRIVEN FROM KOREAN HILL

Seoul, Korea (AP)—Allied infantrymen drove armor-supported Chinese troops off a Western Korean hill today in a bitter 5½-hour battle.

At least one Communist-armor vehicle—type unreported—was damaged by planes supporting the advancing U. N. troops, the Eighth Army said. Two other armored vehicles were seen on the hill.

As the Reds abandoned the hill northwest of Yonchon, Allied soldiers used flame throwers to destroy their bunkers.

Marine planes knocked out two airstrips near the front in Central Korea. Carrier-based Navy planes blasted Communist rail yards and supply facilities in Eastern Korea while the Air Force hammered front-line positions with bombs, rockets and flaming napalm.

An ammunition dump was blown up and 11 Red troop bunkers, four artillery pieces and an anti-aircraft gun were destroyed, the Fifth Air Force said.

Other fighter bombers swept over North Korea to hit Communist supply lines. Returning pilots listed 20 boxcars and two buildings as damaged and 12 vehicles destroyed and 13 damaged.

Action along the sweltering ground front dwindled Wednesday, but the Reds poured heavy artillery and mortar fire into Allied lines. Temperatures of 98 degrees were recorded in some sectors.

Divorcee Reveals Fantastic Story Of $1,500,000 Theft

Carson City, Nev. (AP)—The French divorcee who pleaded that she made a bedroom bargain with millionaire La Vere Redfield to steal his $1,500,000 safe today faced five to 10 years in prison for directing that fantastic burglary.

A Federal Court jury yesterday found Mrs. Jeanne D'Arco Michaud, 36, guilty of carrying more than $147,000 of the loot across state lines.

The jury rejected the petite, dark haired woman's contention that she gained Redfield's consent to the theft in a bedroom tryst at the millionaire's gloomy Reno mansion December 28.

A special suicide watch was put over the Canadian divorcee. She previously attempted suicide.

Redfield denied in court he consented to the theft, but was so hesitant and evasive that Federal Judge Roger Foley's temper flared at the blue-janed financier.

An amazing new touch to a case that will go down in FBI files as one of the strangest in history came yesterday with this revelation: Redfield still has 270,000 silver dollars cached in a secret basement room of his field stone residence.

Mrs. Michaud, who will be sentenced June 30, freely admitted masterminding the rich burglary, saying she offered a 50 per cent split to Anthony Gaggioli, 41, former Reno gambling casino employee, to arrange the job.

BROKEN MAIN CAUSES DROUGHT IN CAPITAL
Washington (AP)—It was hot. Man, it was hot! Ninety-eight, in fact. Hottest day this year. Hottest June 25 since 1875.

Just the kind of day for ice-water. Or a cold shower. So at the height of the heat—a huge water main burst in Washington.

Capitol Hill dried up—no pun intended.

The White House went dry—but President Truman's swimming pool already had been filled. He didn't have to miss his daily dip.

All told, more than 20 million gallons of water went to waste, annoying and inconveniencing practically everybody in the most densely populated part of the nation's capital.

The drought lasted over seven hours, beginning in mid-afternoon yesterday. Nobody could find out at once what caused the break.

Scientists Discover Mice That Are Barbers

New York (AP)—There are barber mice who shave other mice—without a squeak in a carload of customers.

So said Dr. Theodore S. Hauschka of the Institute for Cancer Research and Lankenau Hospital Research Institute, Philadelphia, in the Journal of Heredity yesterday.

Hauschka wrote that the barber rodents give close shaves—but no haircuts—by eating all the whiskers off their companions.

Ohio Man Becomes Fifth Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese

Erie (AP)—In a setting of churchly splendor, 43-year-old Archbishop William Crittenenden of Cincinnati today became the fifth bishop of the Erie Diocese of the Episcopal church.

Lay and clerical leaders marched in a colorful procession through the city to St. Paul's Cathedral where the ceremony was held.

The march was headed by four crucifers bearing a cross, the choir of the cathedral chanting solemn music, and standard-bearers carrying flags of the Episcopal church and the United States. Then followed hundreds of laymen in formal attire and church officials wearing their robes of office.

At the cathedral, the Rt. Rev. Henry Knox Sherrill, presiding bishop of the Episcopal church, recited a 10-century-old prayer reserved by the Episcopal church for the consecration of bishops.

Then Bishop Sherrill was joined in the ancient "laying on of hands" ceremony by four other bishops: The Rt. Rev. Beverly Dandridge, Ohio; and Rt. Rev. Henry Hobson, Southern Ohio; the Rt. Rev. John Thomas Heistand, Harrisburg, and the Rt. Rev. Joseph Gillespie Armstrong, Suffragan bishop of Pennsylvania.

Two other bishops participated in another part of the consecration: The Rt. Rev. Noble Cullen Powell, Maryland, and the Rt. Rev. Lauriston Livingston Scalf, western New York.

Bishop Crittenenden has been serving as archdeacon of the Southern Ohio diocese since 1948. He was elected to the new office at a special diocesan convention May 26 at Warren.

The Erie Diocese has been without a bishop since last November, when the Rt. Rev. Harold E. Sawyer resigned because of ill health. The diocese comprises 13 North-western Pennsylvania counties.

Attending the consecration service from here was the Rev. Beecher M. Rutledge, who was in the procession and acted in the capacity of marshal; the Rev. William A. Chamberlain, Jr.; J. H. Alexander, member of the standing committee of the diocese; William E. Rice, chairman of Bishop's Men; Robert E. Dunham, secretary of the Bishop's Men; Mr. and Mrs. Rex Bleckard, Mrs. James C. Allen, Mrs. Arthur M. Crouse, Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Donaldson, Mrs. George S. Frantz, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Hunter, Mrs. Richard Hansen, Howard M. Lemmon, Mrs. John G. MacDonald, H. H. McConnell, Mrs. V. J. Phillips, Mrs. G. C. Werner, Mrs. R. H. Trusler and Mrs. E. M. Rutledge.

Readings of 100 and above were general in many parts of the South. The day's top of 104 at Macon, Ga., marked the fifth consecutive day of 100 or higher and the 25th straight day with temperatures above 90. It was 103 in Augusta and 101 in Savannah. The 101 in Nashville was a record for the date while Chattanooga's 102 tied the all-time high for June.

New records for June 25 were set in several Virginia cities, including Newport News with 102 and Richmond and Norfolk with 100. Texas baked, with a top of 106 at Presidio.

It was 97 in downtown Pittsburgh, equaling the record for the date set in 1922.

DROWNS IN CREEK
East Liverpool, O. (AP)—Catherine Webb, 20, of nearby Millport, Pa., drowned last night as she stepped into a deep hole while wading in Beaver Creek at the Ohio-Pennsylvania border. Her body was recovered about two hours after she sank. She could not swim.

Plans Are Completed for Celebration Vesper Services Next Sunday Evening

Arranged by the Warren County Ministerial Association, the annual vesper service held in connection with the Junior Chamber of Commerce July 4th celebration, will take place on the lawn in front of Beatty School at 7:30 p. m., Sunday, June 29. Rev. Leland D. Hine, pastor of First Baptist church, has chosen "Our Liberty" as his subject. Rev. Roger Morey, pastor of Bethel EUB church, will preside and Miss Linnea Scott will be the pianist.

John D. Haggerty, Jr., chairman of the Jaycees' vesper service committee, has announced the following program:

RECORDS ARE SHATTERED IN MANY CITIES

Most Pennsylvanians groped for a hole in the smothering blanket of hot humid air which still clung to much of the nation today, but the mercury headed for a return engagement with record high temperatures.

The predicted rise to highs of 95 - 100 in Eastern Pennsylvania and 94-98 in the western half of the state came in the wake of the hottest day of the year in some areas.

Two perished in Philadelphia as the second heat wave of the summer took firm hold yesterday. More than 40 others were treated for heat exhaustion in Philadelphia hospitals.

By The Associated Press
June's blazing heat kept up its relentless siege over wide areas in the eastern half of the nation today.

Yesterday was the summer season's hottest day in hundreds of cities in the heat-stricken region. Temperatures soared into the 90s and above 100 in the East, the South and the Midwest. Records for the date were broken in scores of cities.

No immediate, widespread relief appeared in sight. However, some of the cooler air which covered the Northern Plains states was headed into the North Central states. There was a promise of some cooling by tomorrow. No such relief was forecast for Eastern and Southern hot spots.

Hot dry weather threatened crops in some Southern states, including Virginia and Arkansas. Deaths from heat were reported in several cities. Hundreds suffered heat prostration.

Baltimore reported 99 heat prostrations and one death from the 98-degree heat. It was the hottest June 25 in 84 years. In nearby Washington, the mercury hit 98 for a season's high and the hottest June 25 since 1875.

Three deaths attributed to the heat were reported in Ohio, which sweltered in temperatures around the 100 mark.

Two persons died from heat in Philadelphia, and 40 were treated in hospitals for heat exhaustion. The day's top reading of 96 was a record for the date.

New York City reported a record 96.5 reading. More than a score of persons were treated for heat prostration. One death was reported in Upstate New York, where temperatures were in the 90s.

Readings of 100 and above were general in many parts of the South. The day's top of 104 at Macon, Ga., marked the fifth consecutive day of 100 or higher and the 25th straight day with temperatures above 90. It was 103 in Augusta and 101 in Savannah. Folk Out West Are Extremely Anxious For Peace in Korea

Denver (AP)—Travel notes from curbstone philosopher's diary: The American West today is more sensitive to and more interested in the Korean situation than any other section of the nation. "What can we do about it?" the people ask.

They have no pat answer to it. They want it solved. But they are tired of the cut-and-dried approach of the problem.

A lot of sons from this area have fought in Korea, many are still there. The Western people accept the sacrifice of military service as a national duty more readily, one feels passing through, than some other parts of America do.

But if either the Republican or the Democratic Party — or the State Department — has a fresh avenue of solution to the stalemate with the Chinese Reds, it is most likely of acceptance here.

Folks are just tired of the deadlock. A new shuffle of the cards on a common sense basis would be welcomed.

Most of the sympathy that people feel for semi-savages is wasted, just because someone doesn't enjoy the plumb that you do is no proof that he doesn't have more fun out of life.

A case in point is the average Indian who ambushes the visiting tourist everywhere in the West, offering him for sale feathered neckties, made in Brooklyn or silver souvenirs imported from Mexico.

The Eastern tourist feels obligated to buy something from one of those noble sidewalk Redskins. He feels upon himself the entire enormous guilt of having stolen the United States from its original settlers. He tries to placate this sense of guilt by buying a souvenir he really doesn't want and giving it to a relative he really doesn't like.

The Indian salesman, on the other hand, is a complete realist. He doesn't waste his hours grudging the fact the palefaces gypped him out of his ancestral paradise.

The stoical Indian holding out a beaded pocketbook for sale on a Western street corner isn't dreaming of the race's past glory. He has accepted defeat. All he wants to do is sell his wares to some sentimental visitor, and go home and brag to his family like any other good businessman.

He has become a unique figure in the old pattern of America. But there is a tremendous fact about his son, when he puts on a khaki uniform and fights the white man's war. He is a more formidable and dependable warrior for Uncle Sam, who hasn't taken too good care of his people, than ever his ancestors were in the tomahawk defense of their tribal ideals.

I have never seen an American military cemetery overseas that didn't number an Indian among its buried heroes. In battle, they have a stubborn steadfastness unto death, and the wonder is—why?

Interesting visitors to the Times-Mirror plant Wednesday afternoon were members and five leaders of Cub Pack No. 46, Pleasant township. The group arrived in time to be shown through the editorial rooms before adjourning to the composing and press rooms to see the edition "put to bed." Those in the Pack were: Richard Nollinger, James Kittinger, William Lindsey, Ray Cole, Patricia Cole, Bruce Highhouse, Robert Anderson, Robert Schaeffer, Robert Musante, Thomas Musante, Marvin Estes, of Buffalo, Victor Genberg, James Alexander, James Ruhlman, Allen Nielson, Danny Ruhlman, Donald Haight, and the following leaders: Thomas Musante, Melvin Gnage, Kenneth Cole, Mrs. Gerald Ruhlman and Mrs. Richard Ruhlman.

European Student Is Due to Arrive

Thomas Thom, 23 year old visitor from Colchester, England, and one of two European students invited to spend part of the summer in Warren, is expected to arrive in town today or tomorrow.

Miss Marga Schmitts, of Bonn, Germany, is coming during July. Members of the local organizations participating in the Foreign Student Program have been contacted and housing has been arranged for part of their six-weeks stay.

However, Mrs. Fred Plummer and Mrs. Spencer Myer, who are taking telephone calls for these arrangements, state that housing is still needed for part of the time.

It is desirable to place these students in homes where there are young people, but this is not a requisite. Neither is it necessary for Warren hosts to feel obligated to entertain the students.

They are coming to learn something of the American way of life and a week's stay in a number of varied types of homes is the aim of the exchange plan.

Anyone who cares to offer one of these students a week's stay in a Warren home may still do so by contacting either of the above women.

NEW SHRINE
Since its opening as a historic shrine, the Roosevelt estate has become one of the most important tourist attractions in the United States. More than a million persons have visited the grave of the late President.

Hal Boyle's Comment

By HAL BOYLE
Los Alamos, N. M. (AP)—There is no cemetery here in the birthplace of the atom bomb.

That fact is a clue to the biggest defect of living in a government-built community that is ideal in many ways.

As one of the 12,800 workers in this heart center of America's atomic weapon research put it: "People come, people go. But nobody really feels it is home. Very few expect to die here, and I guess that is why there isn't any cemetery."

Los Alamos today is perhaps the most unusual community in the nation. When it was conceived in 1943 it was thought it would never grow beyond a population of 700.

Now it is a small city of nearly 13,000 scientists and technicians, sprawling over several mesas in an isolated, 86,000-acre, closely guarded reservation in the Jemez Mountains of Northern New Mexico. It is still growing rapidly, and work is under way on a new $20 million dollar laboratory.

The chief industry of this strange city is to develop better instruments for widespread atomic death yet by most yardsticks of sociology it is a dream city.

There are no slums here. There is no unemployment. The city has a fine school system. It has wonderful recreation facilities, including a baseball field, swimming pool, ice skating rink, ski lift, and its own small symphony orchestra.

Unlike most other cities throughout the land, it has no major parking problems. The crime rate is unbelievably low. The intelligence level of its citizens is perhaps the highest achieved by any city in history.

HONEYSUCKLE

The New York Times

Various bushes and shrubs belonging to the honeysuckle family have already come to bloom; but the one which country folk know as the true honeysuckle, the sweetest flower that blooms, waits for mid-June.

They are not the kind of trumpets you find on the morning glory, for instance. The honeysuckle's trumpet has a kind of split lip; it divides into two petals, one of them four-lobed and the other a single lobe. They open a flawless white and slowly turn a honey color, then a cream yellow; and then they fade. Far down in the trumpet itself is the drop of nectar which rewards long-tongued bees and humming birds, and persistent boys who know where to look.

The other honeysuckles are bushes, for the most part, and though their flowers are pretty enough and have sufficient fragrance to entice certain bees and flies they aren't half as sweet as this climber. Here is one of the eagerest of all friendly climbers. It will decorate a fence or grace a knoll, if properly tended, or climb a tree or cover a whole hillside, if left to itself. And in a mild winter it remains evergreen, even putting forth a few blossoms well into November.

But it is longest remembered for its sweetness. Not the cloying sweetness of the tuberose, for instance, not quite as spicy as that of apple blossoms. It has the sweetness of honey, rather, the mildest of clover honey. If the truth were known, probably that honey contains more than a trace of flavor from the honeysuckle itself, for the bees know how good it is.

NEW BAB-O

world's sudsiest cleanser...now also

In Warren today! Get new Bab-O with sanitizing action!

Protect your family's health. Have a brighter, whiter, safer sink! No increase in price—yet you save the cost of extra disinfecting products!

Now your sink can be brighter whiter...sanitary...disinfected!

"There are tens of thousands of germs in every kitchen sink. But new Bab-O makes your sink safely clean!!"

KILLS GERMS!

*In actual laboratory tests, Bab-O has been proven again and again to kill or inhibit common disease germs causing dysentery, typhoid fever, pneumonia and other diseases!

Did you know this? Even clean-looking sinks may harbor dangerous germs! Right where your home should be cleanest, tens of thousands of germs may breed in the tiny, invisible porcelain pits and scratches... tiny holes that trap leftover bits of grease and grime. These germ-laden particles form a dingy film called Sink Smog—and greasy, greasy Sink Smog nourishes bacteria, helps them grow and multiply!

New sanitizing Bab-O sweeps away germ-laden Sink Smog in seconds! Good news for every family! New Bab-O—the world's sudsiest, best-cleaning cleanser—now contains 4.25% Sodium Dodecyl Benzyl Sulfonate. Not only cleans your sink but also sanitizes your sink! New Bab-O with "sdds" deadens common infectious disease germs that might cause dysentery, typhoid and other diseases!

Here's How! Bab-O is the world's sudsiest cleanser...has millions more suds...power-packed suds that dig deep into porcelain pits and scratches...power-packed suds that work sanitizing "sdds" way down where germ-laden Sink Smog sticks. In seconds, Bab-O blasts bacteria-infested Sink Smog loose, sweeps it down the drain!

New sanitizing Bab-O! Clean, fresh fragrance! Kind to hands!

Letters to the Editor

June 19th, 1952.

Dear Folks:
We read in the news of the war wave at home. To each of us the picture is different for, to each of us, home is a different place, and my home is Warren. My picture is that of ripples of war along the sidewalks in front of the stores at Saturday noon, and of 4-Winds at dusk with the light rise of wind in the wild cherry trees. It brings to me a deep feeling.
And in Germany it remains cool, almost too cool for this time of year. The sun alone seems bright and warm and there is not enough of the sun on this land. It occurs to me, as a picture, how long the people here have lived with clouds and not with the sun. They have lived beneath clouds of political fear of Russian aggression and now the sun is beginning to shine and folks here hardly know whether to trust the warmth of the sun that may spell political independence and freedom for them.
Perhaps they are not the only ones who are not used to the sun.

light that is definitely shining on Europe and the spell of sunlight is here to stay through three recent phases of development that have cleared away the recent cloud that has hung over post-war Europe. Most important to the obvious eye is the final agreement on the Schuman plan. It didn't make battle banner headlines but it was worth them. The second phase was the bringing of Communism into an open battle ground the recent Paris riots. The government of France, under the leadership of Pinay, is increasing in strength and has dealt Communism an almost "death blow" in its recent action towards the Marxist-Lenin-Stalin form of political religion. The determination of France to work with instead of against Germany is, indeed, a new form of democracy. It is the form of democracy one might call political. It is an existent state between nations whose individual forms of government differ. The third phase is in the people themselves in their determination to maintain their traditions while building governmental beliefs that they may trust to work one with the other in democratic-economic forms.

We are the ones who may not understand this sunshine well for we are bred to individualism and not to the necessity of unit existence. At home the sun shines most of the time; here it never has.
We hear of the mutual civilian defense plan against air attack at home. People here do not understand it for there is no system of defense plan in air raid here and there is but little talk of war.
Yet it is with pride I know of that civilian effort for by it you are not only protecting yourselves but the economy that is vital to protect the heart of Europe.
The "arsenal for Peace" is winning and the victory will be the greatest battle won for the hearts of the American people both living and dead.
Yours truly,
Pfc. William M. Meade

Friend Ed: This old timer was down today and inspected the new "mill race". What I am now interested in is THE island any more an island. Is Clark street still on THE island? It appears to this old timer that Bartash, Warren Super Market, Morella, Connelly, the Reliable Furniture Co. and Merle James repair shop are now the only ones that claim "on the island" in their advertising. Anyway, wouldn't a couple of quarts of nitro in the middle of the dam been a lot cheaper than all the work that was done and given a lot more land to the ones at the upper end of the so-called mill race?

Old Timer.

YOUR FORESTER L. E. Stetz

Adequate policing of the five public picnic areas and Campgrounds on the Northern District of the Allegheny Forest will be delayed until such time as sufficient rain falls to end the current forest fire danger. The danger station at Barnes has indicated the last few days that we are in Class III fire weather. When such class of weather develops we have to man the lookout towers.

"Lefty" McClellan and Bill Chadwell, who normally would be policing and maintaining these picnic areas, have had to return to lookout tower duty where they will remain until the weather breaks. In the meantime, each forest guard, who uses the facilities provided at such areas as Heart's Content, Morrison Run, Allegheny, Sandstone Springs and Kennedy Springs picnic areas, can help greatly by carefully disposing of the food scraps in the garbage cans provided, and burning the papers in the fire grates. Minor policing will be done, in connection with other work, by other District personnel while en route to timber sales.

While it might look, at first glance, as though the woods and country side are too green to burn it has been adequately demonstrated recently that such is not the case. A fire has occurred on each of the last two Sundays, and both appear to have been of incendiary origin. One burned over 20 acres and the other 4 acres. Both of them burned in country where there was considerable green weed vegetation and both reduced the vegetation to ashes. The 4 acre fire, which occurred last Sunday, nearly ignited a high pressure gas well. There have also been fires during the past few days on the Southern districts of the Allegheny National Forest.

As is so typical of late spring fires, it burned deep into the duff and continued to smolder and smoke up long after the water treatment should have drowned it out thoroughly. In order to be absolutely sure that it couldn't flare up again, and endanger the gas well and surrounding land, a nearby bulldozer was used to bulldoze a wide line to mineral soil around the perimeter of the burn, and around the gas well inside the burn.

At the time of this writing high winds, and bright sunny weather, have dried out exposed spots on the forest where heavy slashings have created a fire trap by removing the overhead vegetation. Old burned over areas, where inadequate tree growth has been able to seed in, are also hazardous at this time, and because such areas often contain quantities of with garden flowers and other appropriate appointments.

Following the serving, the popular pastor and his wife were remembered with an electric toasting and a gift of money, Captain L. C. Dysart (retired) making the presentation in behalf of the group.
With feeling, Mr. Tennes expressed their thanks and spoke highly of the many kindnesses and consideration shown himself and family during their stay here.
In turn, the pastor and his wife have done much for the local church, through their good influence and fine cooperative efforts, and sincere good wishes for success and happiness go with them

Officers Installed By WOTM Chapter

Senior Regent Esther Odell was in charge of last night's regular meeting of Warren Chapter 693,
Women of the Moose, with installation of officers following Ethel Johnson's Chapter Night.
The lodge rooms were beautifully decorated with peonies and roses for the induction ceremonies conducted by the men's lodge, 109.
A member of the College of Regents, Gussie Anderson, served as installing chairman; Phil Lauffenberger as installing regent; Gene Simmons, chaplain, and Newton Odell, guide. Flowers used were presented by Lucille Smith and Jay Smith, Jr., and were later presented to the junior regent and new senior regent.
Comprising the new slate are the junior graduate regent, Esther Odell; senior regent, Maud Eck-land; junior regent, Laota Minick;
chaplain, Ann Simmons; recorder,
Grace Miller; treasurer, Ann Stigelmer; guide, Mildred Lawton;
assistant guide, Alice Helmon;
argus, Gertrude Gleason; sentinel,
Vera Petrowski; pianist, Flora
Nelson.
At the close of the ceremonies,
the new senior regent presented gifts to the installing officers in appreciation of their work and Mabel Crimpenshaw, of the College of Regents, presented a gift to Mrs. Odell from her co-workers and the customary pin to Marie Covell, retiring junior graduate regent.
The group had the pleasure of entertaining Martha Jackson, deputy grand regent of Kane, and a number of members of the Kane and Warren Lodges, LOOM.
At the close of the evening, a social time was enjoyed and refreshments were served by Ethel Johnson, chairman; Gussie Anderson, Marie Covell, Mae Speaker, and Mabel Crimpenshaw.

Musical Convocation

On Saturday and Sunday, June 28-29, the First Methodist church of Youngsville will present to the community a Musical Convocation, featuring the Musical McMurrays, television and radio artists, and widely known evangelists. The programs will include many of the couple's outstanding musical sermons and the McMurray Symphony in Brass. Prof. J. R. McMurray is nationally known as a cornetist of top rank and will demonstrate this ability in solo work, as well as in duo arrangements with his wife.
First of the weekend services will be the Warren County Youth for Christ rally at 8:00 p. m. Saturday, when Mr. McMurray will be speaking and playing his cornet. Three services are planned for Sunday, 11:00 a. m., 3:00 and 7:30
p. m., with both the McMurrays combining their musical talents.
Rev. C. C. Ross, pastor, and members of his evangelistic committee extend a cordial welcome to all in the community and surrounding towns to share in this outstanding event. A love offering will be given the visitors at the afternoon and evening services.

Successful Y-Teen Camp

A total of 110 Warren YWCA girls and 22 counselors enjoyed the 1952 summer camping period at Newtash on Lake Chautauqua, having perfect weather to round out their pleasures.
In addition to the cooperation of the Weather Man, the girls had two good cooks, Mrs. Sarah Swick and Mrs. Alice White, who served delicious meals three times a day and made the dining room one of the most popular spots on the grounds. Even the girls on KP
duty agreed this was true.
Under the supervision of Jean McDade and Beverly Chapman, the girls were able to swim at least twice a day and some days
as frequently as four times.
The most important event of the week was Saturday evening, when a candlelight service was held and names of Honor Campers were announced. Due to rain, the service was held in the Rec.
Hall but the girls were able to sit around the fireplace and sing and have their candlelighting ceremony. This year's honor campers were: Paula Delman, 7th grade; Dorothy Lundahl, 8th grade; Betsy Johnson, 9th grade;
and Sally Tome, high school.
These girls were given trophies,
with the inscription, "1952 Honor
Camper—Camp Newtash—Warren
Y-Teen Camp, YWCA Camp."
In addition to the Honor Camper awards, banners were given all girls who attended all their classes and activities, took part in the evening programs, attended vesper services, and were cooperative in all phases of the camp program.

Girls eligible for these awards were:
Janice Baldwin, Carol Briggs,
Ann and Grace Conti, Patty Dangelo, Carol and Paula Delman,
Shirley Fowler, Patty Graziano,
Barb Greenwald, Bonnie Hillard,
Mary Hughes, Marilyn Johansen,
Donna Key, Karen Lawson, Barb

These awards did not arrive in time to give them to the girls at camp but should be at the YW later this week. Girls will be notified of their arrival and they may get them at the "Y."

Women Golfers Continue Busy Season Schedule

Mrs. Wendell Lawson was most successful in guessing her score on each hole in the weekly golf tournament for women of the Conewago Valley County Club. She also shot the low gross for the field, with a score of 90.
Mrs. Peter Juliano won the prize for her division and Mrs. Byron Knapp placed first in the third division.
Low nets in Class A were shot by Mrs. Sidney W. Blackman, first, and Miss Betty Jane Branch, second. Mrs. Henry Marymont and Mrs. William Moore won the low nets in Class B, while the Class C low nets were taken by Mrs. Charles Gleason and Mrs. Byron Knapp.
The June Handicap Tournament of 36 holes has been extended until June 30, to enable many of the players to complete their scores. A mixed two-ball foursome has been planned for the Fourth of July, with the ladies extending the invitation to the men.
Many of the women golfers of the Conewago Club will be in Erie Friday to compete in the Northwestern Invitational at the Kahkwa Club. Those attending will be Mrs. Harold Banghart, Mrs. David Beaty, Mrs. William Moore, Mrs. W. C. Fuelhart, Mrs. J. R. Sugerman, Mary Branch, Mrs. Homer Culbertson, Mrs. Henry Marymont, Mrs. Fred Emhardt, Mrs. Hugh Jamieson, Mrs. Jack Hansen, Mrs. George Calderwood and Mrs. Robert Walsh.

Scrubbed Look Scores In Popularity Race

SENTIMENTAL MOMENT . . . A stick cologne in pink metallic case is a neat evening bag accessory for the school dance. Romantically inviting floral bouquet.

By BETTY CLARKE
AP Newsfeatures Beauty Editor

School dance season brings a lot of bright new hopes and many disappointments. Some girls are invited to all the social functions their male acquaintances can muster up at this season. More unfortunate classmates lucklessly do not even get a bid to a golf driving range.

Some girls are more popular than others because they dress attractively and have the lady like demeanor that young men admire. It isn't always the prettiest girls who are invited to school dances. Sometimes the well-groomed girl with the well-scrubbed look can outshine her glamorous sisters in a man's eyes.

What are the important points of grooming that help to make a girl date bait?

Cleanliness is one main asset. A girl with shining, clean hair, neatly arranged; clear skin; straight stocking seams, polished shoes and sparkling white accessories always will command a gentleman's attention.

Add to this a knowledge of how to apply makeup, discreetly, a good sense of humor, charm and an interest in people, and you have a feminine package that is hard to beat from the male point of view.

This perfect-lady type is never guilty if imperfections which embarrass escorts such as: table hopping, loud and raucous laughter, the too-plunging neckline, captivating glances at other men.

She uses a fragrance in a flowery fresh bouquet that is romantically inviting, and not a heavy, sickening scent. She prefers a stick cologne in her evening bag, one that is a leak-proof and spill-proof container, and can be gently rubbed over the forehead and arms leaving a scented path, without calling attention to the action.

Daily Vacation Bible School Classes Ended

Sugar Grove—The Daily Vacation Bible School, sponsored by the Free Methodist, Methodist and Presbyterian church schools, brought its activities to a close with a special program given in the Presbyterian church. There has been an enrollment of 127 pupils for the classes, with an average attendance of 110.

The program included singing, with Mrs. Neil Scott at the piano; salute to the American and Christian flags and the Bible; prayer, Pastor Melvin Rein; scripture, memory work and exercises by the pupils; presentation of certificates and awards by the teachers; and a brief message by Rev. L. L. Adams, Free Methodist pastor.

Handwork done during the two-week period was displayed at the closing session and excited much favorable comment.

Pupils and their teachers enjoyed a picnic last Friday as their last day of school.

Mrs. Paul Cariberg, Sr., was director of the school and other teachers and workers were Mrs. Clifford Storms, Mrs. John Stuart, Mrs. Norman Abbott, Mrs. Herbert Gourley, Mrs. Eugene Anderson, Dianne Stewart as pianist, Barbara Anderson, Martha Webster, Martha Morrison, Doris Jones, Mrs. Theodore Allenson, Mrs. L. L. Adams, Mrs. Harold Mack, Mrs. Walter Sweeney.

Mrs. Guy Summerson, Mrs. Lloyd Williams, Carol Skinner, Nancy Schoonover, Marlene Craker, Mrs. Neil Scott, Mrs. Earl Capron, Mrs. Harry Sarvia, Mrs. Conrad Youngberg, Mrs. Howard Curtis, Mrs. Donald Gruber, Mrs. Darwin Curtis, Rev. and Mrs. Victor Redfoot, Ruth Ann Scott as pianist, and Suzanne Onnik. Mrs. Donald Abbott made the program sheets for the closing program.

Guest speakers at the school sessions were Rev. and Mrs. O. R. Swanson, Rev. Redfoot, Rev. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Rein.

MIDSUMMER FESTIVAL AT COVENANT CHURCH

The annual Midsummer Festival sponsored by the Lydia Society will be held at Bethlehem Covenant church this evening, beginning at 8:00. The program will feature several piano and vocal numbers, and the guest speaker will be Mrs. O. Rudolph Swanson, wife of the superintendent of the Covenant churches of the Middle East Conference. Also participating will be Miss Linda Sweiven, from Dassel, Minn. Refreshments will be served, with Mrs. Hulda Carlson, Mrs. Ina Fredrickson, and Mrs. Jennie Larson as the hostesses. The public is cordially invited.

Pumpkins do not mix with watermelons and muskmelons and crops may be planted safely side by side.

GUEST FROM EAST IS PARTY GUEST

Sugar Grove—Mrs. Catherine Carr, assisted by Mrs. Delmar Mickelson, entertained with a shower party which complimented Mrs. Paul Cariberg, Jr., of Westover Field, Mass.

Prizes for games went to Mrs. Gerald Herrick and Mrs. Guy Summerson. The honored one received many nice gifts and dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Mickelson and Mrs. Laurence Saxon. Mrs. Cariberg was presented with a lovely rose corsage and the same flowers were used in decorations.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Herrick, Jamestown, N. Y.; Mrs. Vernon Van Horn and daughter, Navarre, Kane; Mrs. Sanford Beyer, Pittsburgh; Mrs. Edward Day, Youngsville; Mrs. Saxon, of Steadman.

COMING WEDDING

Sugar Grove—Friends here have received announcements of the coming marriage of JoAnn Dodds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Dodds, Clarksburg, W. Va., and Lt. Ronald Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Richardson, Sistersville, W. Va., the ceremony to be a July event.

Pleasant Bible School Concludes Its Session

The Pleasant Township Daily Vacation Bible School, which has been held in the Grange hall for the past two weeks, came to a very successful conclusion when Rev. Howard Cartwright, county missionary, presented certificates to 56 pupils.

A large group of parents and friends gathered to hear the children review their songs and lessons and to see their fine display of handwork.

Those assisting the missionary in conducting the school were Mrs. Winifred Cartwright and Mrs. Myrtle Conner, primary department; Mrs. Lois Frederick and Miss Isabel Carlson, beginners; with Miss Janet Wentz and Miss Beverly Rapp as aides.

In the junior department, 18 boys and girls were under the direct supervision of the missionary, who reports five conversions and an increased interest in the American Sunday School Union's Bible Camp to be held at Duhring during the last week of August.

25th Anniversary Of Mr.-Mrs. Maze Occasion of Party

The delightful custom of honoring those couples in the Quaintance Class of First Baptist church who have been married for 25 years was again observed recently in the party given for Mr. and Mrs. Maze.

About 50 friends gathered in the social parlors of First Baptist church for an evening of amusing entertainment, music and good fellowship.

In the absence of Herbert Harris, teacher of the class, the assistant teacher, Carl Whipple, acted as master of ceremonies.

He first introduced Rev. Leland Hine, pastor of the church, who conducted an inspiring period of devotion. Then Viola Landmark and Ralph Owens, who have shared in the musical life of the couple for the past 25 years, sang a duet, "The Sweetest Story Ever Told." Connie Hetrick, in her inimitable manner, produced the results of her attic research by reminiscing, slyly, in story and poetry, about the Maze romance. Two friends of many years, Violet and Everett Borg, told in witty song and dialogue, of the courtship, marriage and succeeding years of Foster and Lone.

As is customary, at the close of the formal program, a gift was presented to the honored couple. Robert Carlson, chairman of the evening's program, and Warren Gilson, president of the class, brought in a large silver-wrapped

Make Yourself, Spouse Happy By Making Light of His Faults

THE surest way for a woman to stay in love with a man for life is to dwell on his good qualities and make light of his faults. Yet it is amazing how many women reverse the order and wonder why they are so unhappy and discontented, and why marriage gives them so much less than they hoped it would. No husband is perfect and no woman can be expected to think hers is.

But she can be expected to spend more time thinking about his good qualities and dwelling on the satisfactions of her marriage than in thinking about her husband's faults and being bitter about them.

For that is the attitude it takes to stay in love. Bitterness, and even hatred, replaces love when a woman thinks too much about a man's faults and too little about his virtues.

APPRECIATE HIM AND HE'LL BE A BETTER HUSBAND

AND a marriage is satisfying to a woman only so long as she is more acutely conscious of its benefits than of its drawbacks and handicaps. So if you really want a happy marriage, don't give too much thought to your husband's shortcomings. Don't make them too important. Accept them lightly—and appreciate his good qualities. That will not only make you happier, but will make your man happier, too. And chances are that if he is fully credited and appreciated for all he does to make your life happier he'll be a better husband. And, of course, you will be a better and a happier wife.

wall mirror as the gift of the class. Group singing was then enjoyed until refreshments were served.

Miss Joan Carlson, niece, presided at the lace-covered tea table, which was centered with a bowl of spring flowers and white tapais. Douglas Hetrick, young friend of the couple, assisted the committee which was composed of the following members of the class: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Carlson, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. Fran Hetrick, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Gilson, Dr. and Mrs. Carl Whipple.

Seek Information Of Confirmands

The annual confirmand reunion of Hessel Valley Lutheran church, Chancellors Valley, will be held at 8:00 p. m. Sunday, the guest speaker to be Rev. Roland Johnson, Frewsburg, N. Y.

A social hour and buffet supper will follow this program and a vesper service will begin at 8:00 p. m., Pastor C. J. Franzen bringing the message.

An endeavor is being made to perfect a complete list of all confirmands but, to date, there is little information on classes from 1873 to 1887. Anyone knowing of parents or grandparents confirmed in these years is asked to notify Myrtle Johnson, Chancellors Valley, as to whether or not they are living and provide their addresses.

PREBYTERIAN CAMP ATTRACTING MANY

Fifteen junior high young people of First Presbyterian church are spending a week at Erie Presbytery's Junior High Westminster Fellowship Camp Caledon on Lake Erie. The Rev. Warren Corbett, pastor of Sandy Lake Presbyterian church, is director of the camp. Activities include Bible study, projects in Westminster Fellowship program areas, crafts, mission study, and recreation.

Those attending are Alvia Baird, Susan Crossett, Bob Clinger, Betty Ann DeLong, Cindy Dick, Tola Fanoos, Beth Francis, Beverly Hanson, Rose Key, Nancy Jane Lannan, Mary Miller, Susan Pritchard, Rose Marie Reese, David Rapp and Janet Steen. Trudy Palmer and Grace Goudy attended the same camp last week. Another delegate, Becky Norris, was unable to attend because of illness.

FLASHER GATHERING

The annual reunion of the family of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Flasher was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Darling, Youngsville, with members in attendance from Sugar Grove, Titusville, Tidoult, Youngsville, and Pawling, N. Y. Also marked at the gathering was the birthday anniversary of Ben Flasher, which was June 24. He received several remembrances and his four youngest grandchildren, Frances and Patty Flasher, Alice Marie Sheckler and Clifton White, sang a "Happy Birthday" in his honor.

SPENCER-WILCOX REUNION PLANNED

The annual Spencer-Wilcox family reunion will be held Sunday at Falconer community park, located in Phetepace street, and all relatives are urged to be in attendance.

Lightning Causes $5,000 Barn Fire

Corry Journal: A lightning bolt in the midst of a brief thunder-shower at 5 p. m. Tuesday touched off a $5,000 barn fire at the home of V. D. Howard on the Picidilli Hill road just east of the city limits.

The flames were discovered almost immediately by employees of the Warren County Highway Department who were working on repaving the road. They summoned Columbus firemen but before the latter could arrive the barn was beyond saving.

With the assistance of the highway crew, who hauled water for the Columbus truck from the farm of John Boleratz, firemen were able to wet down a two car garage and the Howard dwelling, about 75 feet away, and prevent the flames from spreading to them.

The flames broke out only two hours after Roy Swart, who was using the barn, had completed storing new mown and baled hay there. Fortunately, Swart, who had used a new elevator to stack the hay bales, had removed the piece of equipment about 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

In addition to the hay, several pieces of farm equipment, including a drill and mowing machine owned by Mr. Howard, were lost in the flames.

Columbus firemen, visibly perturbed over the antics of three motorists, reported the license numbers of three vehicles were obtained and will be turned over to State Police. The offending motorists who followed the fire truck to the scene left their cars parked in such a manner as to completely block the roadway, preventing the Columbus truck from leaving in case of an emergency or the truck from Corry reaching the scene if firemen had been called.

NO-BAR SADDLE CLUB HEARS SHOW REPORT

No-Bar Saddle Club members, holding their regular meeting Wednesday evening at the Lottsville Grange Hall, heard a report from the committee that the June 1st Horse Show held at the Columbus show grounds had netted a large profit for the club treasury.

Appreciation was voiced by the club officers to all who had helped in any way to insure the success of the project.

Welcomed as new members of the organization were Mrs. Florence Bates, Skippy Bates, and J. H. Himes, Spartansburg.

At the conclusion of the meeting, pop and potato chips were served by the refreshments committee, Mr. and Mrs. Max Manwaring and Key Proctor.

Times Topics

QUIET NIGHT

Neither city nor state police had any unusual occurrences to report overnight. Despite heavy traffic with citizens taking to the roads in an attempt to cool off, there were no motor accidents reported.

SUMMER COURSE

Mrs. T. H. Conway, 513 Fourth avenue, left today for Pittsburgh, where she has enrolled for a six-weeks summer course in kindergarten study at the University of Pittsburgh. She will live at Webster Hall, which is near the campus.

BACK IN TOWN

Mr. and Mrs. Willis E. Eby have returned to Warren after spending the past six months at the White Rest Home in Tidoult, following Mr. Eby's critical illness and retirement from Warren State Hospital. They are residing at 203 Lanwood street and Mr. Eby is reported much improved.

ON DEAN'S LIST

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Stone, Conewango avenue, have been advised by the Moore Institute of Art, Science and Industry, Philadelphia, that their daughter, Elaine, made a place on the Dean's List for the period ending in May, 1952, maintaining an average of 90% or better during her second semester's work.

LIGHTNING KILLS COW

Corry Journal: A lightning charge which struck a tree and then bounded into the midst of a herd of six milking cows on the Matthew Potocki farm just north of the Corry city limits killed one of the animals at 5 p. m. Tuesday. The five remaining cows, which had apparently sought refuge under a pine tree near the barn when the storm broke suddenly, were not injured by the bolt. A veterinarian examined the cow and theorized that the lightning, which splintered the tree, jumped from it to the cow, electrocuting it instantly. The animal, which was partly injured, was valued at $300.

HAS SCHOLARSHIP

Mrs. Betty M. Gustafson, RN, who is school nurse in the Sheffield township school district, has been awarded a scholarship and is enrolled in the community health education workshop being conducted at Slippery Rock State Teachers College June 23-July 11. The workshop is sponsored by the Inter-Agency Planning Committee, which includes representatives from the state departments of public instruction, welfare and health, and unofficial agencies interested in health problems, the Tuberculosis and Health Society, Pennsylvania Heart Association, and the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Home for the weekend from Washington, D. C., are Karol Kirberger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kirberger, Jr., and Molly Wroth, daughter of Mrs. E. P. Wroth, Conewango avenue. Accompanying them home was Angie Rizzo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dominic Rizzo, Elm street, who will spend her summer vacation with family and friends.

Oak Wilt Campaign Will Be Intensified Over Pennsylvania

Harrisburg (AP)—The State Agriculture Department today intensified its campaign against oak wilt after discovering the 16th outbreak of the tree disease in Pennsylvania.

The small clump of infected trees was discovered near Gettysburg in Adams County, about five airline miles from a previous infestation.

The outbreak was found during initial airplane flights in an aerial survey. Ground crews later inspected the trees and made identification of the disease through laboratory tests.

Meanwhile, 12 forest rangers completed training flights today out of Harrisburg Airport in preparation for aerial surveys in other Southern Pennsylvania counties.

Before the week is over, surveys will be started or completed in Cumberland, Lancaster, Lebanon and York counties, said Miles Horst, state Agriculture secretary.

Horst also announced he has obtained the services of Dr. Frank C. Craighead, former head of the Forest Insect Control Division of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, as an entomological consultant during the oak wilt campaign.

Counties where previous oak wilt outbreaks were reported include Allegheny 4, Erie 1, Franklin 2, Greene 1, Huntingdon 1, Mifflin 2, and Perry 3.

FARM NOTES

Warren county people were part of a throng of visitors at the Erie County Fruit Field Day on Saturday, June 21, at North East, where they saw an all-day program of educational demonstrations and exhibits dealing principally with improved techniques in fruit production and marketing.

Many different sections of Pennsylvania were represented, also other states and Canada. Attendance was estimated at 5,000.

Freezing foods, cherry pies baked by the Erie county cherry pie champion, Shirley Miller, of Corry, a puppet show put on by 4-H girls to stress proper diets for weight control, and an exhibit of work by adult extension clubs were some of the highlights.

of the home economics attractions for wives of growers. Each received free a fruit recipe booklet compiled by Erie county women.

Four refreshment stands, a Red Cross safety unit, State Police assistance with traffic, ample parking space and free bus service all showed careful planning and contributed to the success of the event in terms of pleasure and satisfaction for visitors.

Visitors rode buses back and forth through highly developed fruit country to the fruit and vegetable laboratory of the Pennsylvania State College, four miles away, which held open house as a part of the field day to show how its work aids the fruit grower.

Most activities centered on six adjoining farms. On one place visitors were treated to a continuous performance by many different types of sprayers. On others, tillage tools worked in orchards and vineyards. An old orchard gave many a workout with power pruners.

Homemade equipment created by growers in their own farm shops figured prominently in the displays. Some were in operation. Among these devices were:

A posthole digger, power shovel, brush pusher, pruning platform, drags and other items. A mower pruner, with cutter bar high in the air, snipped off tops of fruit trees to reduce manual pruning.

Hundreds of new sprayers, tractors, plows, and other commercial machines and equipment including an irrigation system, were displayed along the highway in spaces stretching out for almost a mile.

Fence post treating, weed control fruit cultural practices, marketing techniques, and control of insects and diseases were some of the many educational features.

Staged by the Erie County Horticultural Association in conjunction with the County Agricultural and Home Economics Extension staff, the field day had the cooperation also of the whole Extension Service and the Agricultural Experiment Station of the Pennsylvania State College. Heading the committee in charge were co-chairmen Kenneth Youngs and Jack Naylor and County Agent H. J. Poorbaugh.

Among visitors were fruit specialists and other authorities in related lines of work from Ohio, New York, Virginia, West Virginia, Delaware, and Michigan and Ontario, Canada.

The Library of Congress has acquired a printer's copy of the Lincoln-Douglas Debates and also a letter from Abraham Lincoln to the Chicago Press and Tribune requesting two sets of that newspaper's reports on the debates.

Changes in the Retail Prices of Fresh Foods Are Mostly Upward During Week

By The Associated Press
Changes in retail prices of fresh foods were mostly upward this week, led by increases in eggs, potatoes and several summertime fruits. Some cuts of lamb were a little lower in scattered markets, but meat prices as a whole had not yet reflected recent declines at the livestock and wholesale levels. Most beef, veal, pork and chicken items were about unchanged, as were dairy products.

Top grade eggs advanced 2 to 4 cents a dozen in many places, continuing the slow rise which usually accompanies a seasonal hot-weather decline in production and the growing difficulty of maintaining top egg quality.

Potatoes, after last week's sharp decline, levelled off price-wise and then turned higher as heavy rains in some growing areas, particularly Virginia, cut down shipments and trimmed overall supplies.

Most markets received considerably larger supplies of such seasonal fruits as cherries, berries, grapes, peaches, watermelons, plums, apricots and canteloupes this week. But rising temperatures in many big population centers sent demand for these items soaring, too, and prices of most edged higher.

Only canteloupes and Western grapes showed any notable price downward. Canteloupes moved in to what the Agriculture Department called the reasonable price range in most markets—and topped the week-end produce specials in many.

Blackberries and raspberries, some showing rain damage, were offered in a wide range of quality. Good blueberries were to be found on produce counters, but were still relatively high. Gooseberries and watermelons were in the good-buy class. Lemons advanced sharply in many places. Grapefruit and strawberries were generally higher.

Beets and cabbage were low and plentiful. Best cucumbers, iceberg lettuce and tomatoes all were relatively high but plenty of lower quality were available.

Church Anniversary At Sugar Grove Is Progressing Nicely

Much of the credit for the very successful centennial anniversary celebration being staged this week by the Sugar Grove Methodist church must go to the various committees which spent many thoughtful hours in preparation of the program and the hundred-and-one other details necessary for smooth-running activities.

Serving as the general committee have been the pastor, the Rev. Victor L. Redfoot, F. A. Schoonover, Wesley Barlow, Jesse Thompson, and Mrs. Allene Briggs. Working with them have been these additional units:

Historical—Mrs. Delmar Mickelson, Flossie Broughton, Mrs. Allene Briggs, Wesley Barlow, Mrs. Gregg Abbott, Mr. and Mrs. John Abbott.

Entertainment—Mrs. Fritz Schoonover, Mrs. Wesley Barlow, Mrs. Frank Conklin.

Children's entertainment—Mrs. Robert Conklin, Geraldine Miller, Suzanne Onink, Barbara Sherrard, Nancy Schoonover and Ruth Ann Scott.

Program—Mrs. Harold Barnes, Mrs. Neil Scott, Mrs. Travers Stohberg, Mrs. Walter Warner, Mrs. Lela Conklin.

Refreshment—Mrs. Hobert Sanders, Mrs. Jesse Thompson, Mrs. Gerald Miller, Mrs. Walter Sweeney, Mrs. Harry Sarvis, Mrs. Howard Onink, Mrs. Donald Gruber, Mrs. Lewis Barlow, Mrs. Roy Raybuck, Mrs. Victor Redfoot, Mrs. Clifford Storms, Mrs. Richard Maavoss, Marguerite Stohberg, Shirley Sherrard.

Advertising—Clifford Storms, Walter Sweeney, Neil Scott, Mrs. Hosea Courley, Mrs. Lewis Barlow.

Ushers—Gerald Miller, Lewis Barlow, Gust Nelson, Robert Conklin, Francis Thompson, Frank Conklin, Burt Schoonover, Harry Sarvis, Harold Barnes and Richard Maavoss.

Invocation—Fritz Schoonover, Walter Warner, Mrs. Burt Schoonover, Rev. V. L. Redfoot.

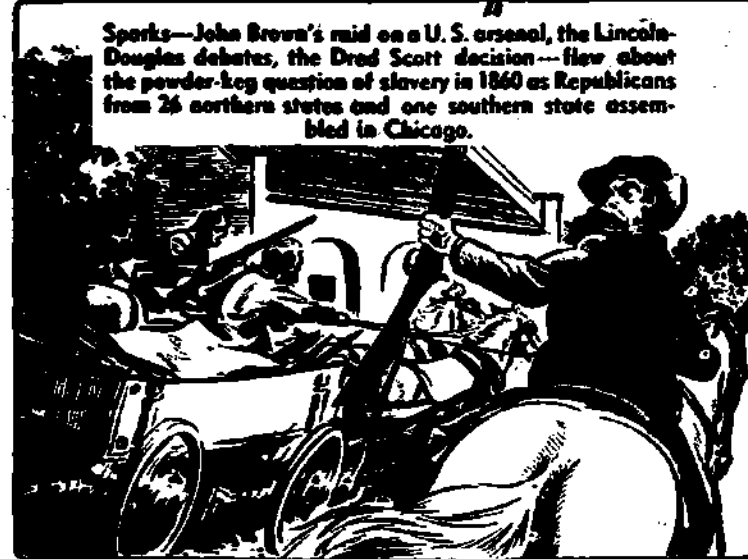

Reception—Mrs. Fritz Schoonover, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Barlow, Mrs. Frank Dorn, Mrs. Gregg Abbott, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Joy, Grover Reynolds, Jesse Thompson.

Decorating—Mrs. Wesley Barlow, Mrs. Delmar Mickelson, Mrs. Gerald Miller, Mrs. Frank Conklin.

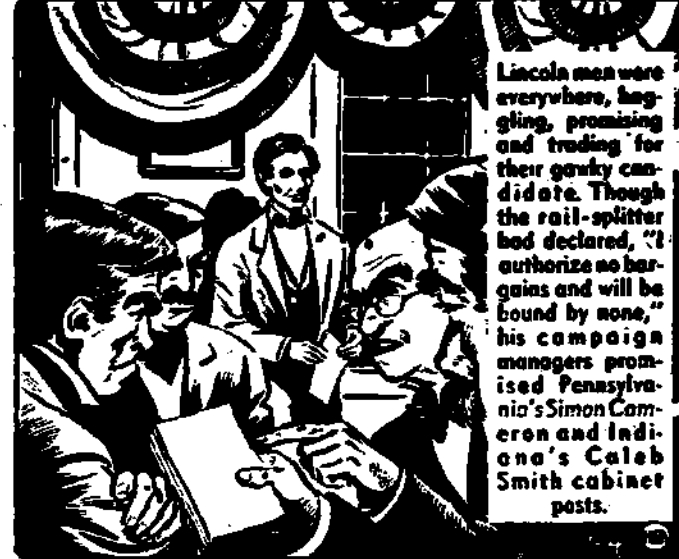

The centennial observance, which opened appropriately with Historical Night on Tuesday, continues through Sunday afternoon, June 29, with two big services on that day.

Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke will preach at the 11:00 a. m. worship period and at 8:10 p. m., the speak-

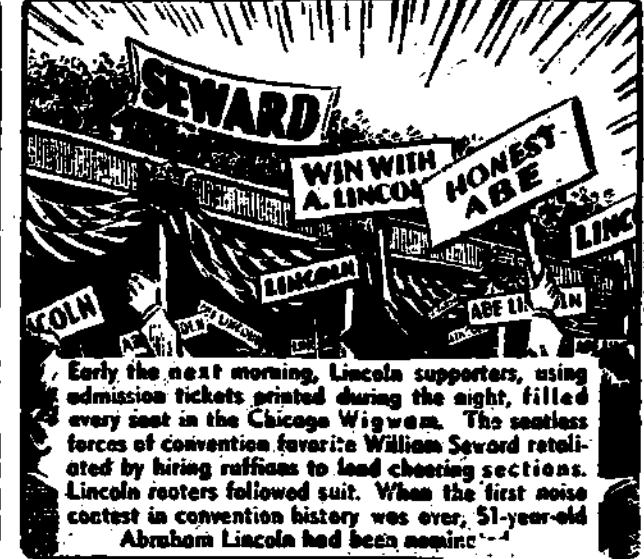

IN CONVENTION ASSEMBLED: 1860

Sports—John Brown's raid on a U. S. arsenal, the Lincoln-Douglas debates, the Dred Scott decision—flow about the powder-keg question of slavery in 1860 as Republicans from 26 northern states and one southern state assembled in Chicago.

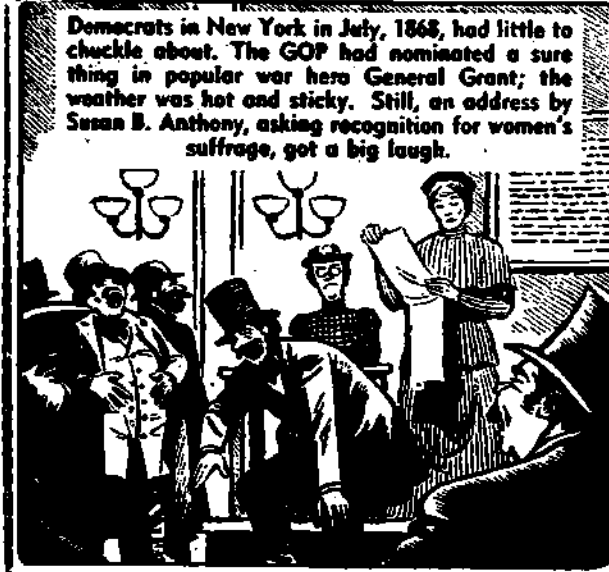

Lincoln men were everywhere, begging, promising and trading for their early card diders. Though the rail-splitter had declared, "I authorize no bargains and will be bound by none," his campaign managers promised Pennsylvania's Simon Cameron and Indiana's Caleb Smith cabinet posts.

Early the next morning, Lincoln supporters, using admission tickets printed during the night, filled every seat in the Chicago Wigwam. The seatless forces of convention favorite William Seward retaliated by hiring ruffians to lead cheering sections. Lincoln rosters followed suit. When the first noise contest in convention history was over, 51-year-old Abraham Lincoln had been acquired.

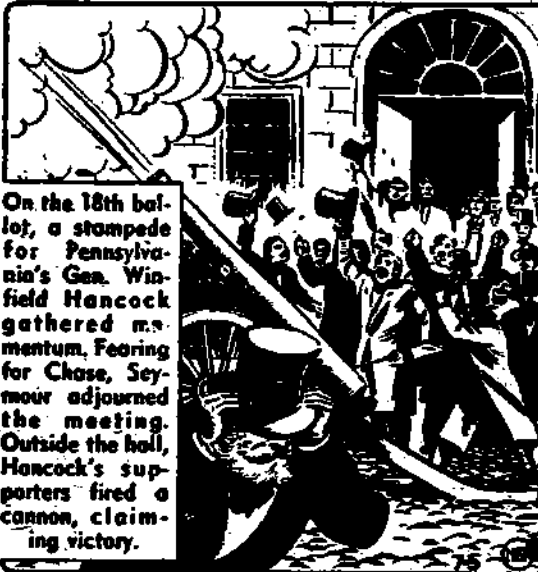

IN CONVENTION ASSEMBLED: 1868

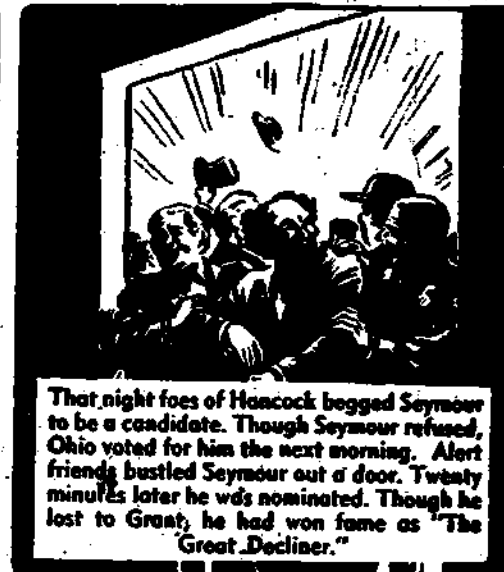

Democrats in New York in July, 1868, had little to chuckle about. The GOP had nominated a sure thing in popular war hero General Grant; the weather was hot and sticky. Still, an address by Susan B. Anthony, asking recognition for women's suffrage, got a big laugh.

Horatio Seymour, convention chairman and ardent supporter of Chief Justice Chase, presided over the balloting. When, on the fourth roll call, he heard his own name mentioned, he immediately declined the votes.

On the 18th ballot, a stampede for Pennsylvania's Gen. Winfield Hancock gathered momentum. Fearing for Chase, Seymour adjourned the meeting. Outside the hall, Hancock's supporters fired a cannon, claiming victory.

That night foes of Hancock begged Seymour to be a candidate. Though Seymour refused, Ohio voted for him the next morning. Alert friends hustled Seymour out of a door. Twenty minutes later he was nominated. Though he lost to Grant, he had won fame as "The Great Decliner."

Delightful Outing Is Held By Corydon Youth Fellowship

Corydon—The Youth Fellowship group of the Methodist church enjoyed a delightful outing to Celoron Park to mark its annual picnic and get-together. Members attending the affair were Diane Duntley, Patty Hammond, Rebecca Caldwell, Joyce and Barbara Neely, Philip Tome and John Putnam, with Mrs. Paul Duntley and Margaret Crooks, leaders.

Mrs. Lida Wilcox has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Guinan in Buffalo, N. Y.

Mrs. Harry Atkins, South Valley, has been discharged from a Jamestown hospital, where she underwent surgery and her condition is reported satisfactory.

M./Sgt. Robert Himes and Mrs. Himes, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Robinson, of Spokane, Wash., were weekend visitors of Mr. and Mrs. George Siebert and family.

Howard Lechner, with the U. S. Marines, has returned to his base.

In Norfolk, Va., following a visit at his home.

Wilma Stryker has returned to Warren after spending the weekend with her mother, Mrs. L. R. Stryker.

Thelma Crooks, Warren and Edith Crooks, Bradford, were visitors here during the weekend.

New Social Security Benefits Expected To Increase Rolls

"Because of the new benefit formula the Jamestown New York Social Security Administration Field Office is anticipating a greatly increased number of persons applying for retirement benefits during the months of July and August," says Chester R. Norman, manager.

"Everyone who has been in work covered by social security continuously since January 1, 1951, will be fully insured by July 1, 1952, and eligible to receive benefits if they are 65 years of age and not working in covered employment for wages in excess of $50.00 a month. A person 75 years of age or older may receive benefits regardless of the amount of his earnings."

"One of the greatest problems in processing social security applications is proof of age. Many persons are of the opinion that it is necessary to have a birth certificate in order to file for benefits. Although a birth or baptismal certificate is, in most cases, the best proof of age other proofs such as Family Bible records, insurance policies, marriage records, children's birth certificates, naturalization certificates, census records etc., are acceptable as proof of age."

"If you are planning to retire and file your application do not delay in order to obtain a birth certificate, but rather, bring in any document which shows your age or date of birth. If you have been unable to obtain any proof of age, you should file your claim and discuss the matter of proof with the social security representative."

GROCERY AIRLIFT FOR ALASKA—Pending settlement of the West Coast maritime strike, groceries are being airlifted to Alaskan communities dependent on shipping for their supplies. Nome and Fairbanks are among the communities hit by the month-old strike.

CHANGE ANNOUNCED IN RECRUITING PLAN

A change in current recruiting regulations has widened enlistment opportunities in the Regular Army. The new regulation permits young men without any previous service to choose specialized assignments in the following branches of the Army: Airborne, Armor, Artillery, Corps of Engineers and Infantry.

In addition to those above, enlistments are authorized for Regular Army Unassigned Army Security Agency Officer Candidate School and Specific Army Schooling.

In order to qualify for enlistment in any of the above branches, the applicant must be between the ages of 17 and 35, must be in good physical condition, and must meet any other qualifications which may be required by his choice of assignment.

Further information may be obtained at the U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Station located in the Warren Post Office Building.

Worry of FALSE TEETH

Slipping or Irritating? Don't be embarrassed by loose false teeth slipping or wobbling when you eat, talk or laugh. Just sprinkle a little FASTEREETH on your plates. This pleasant powder gives a remarkable sense of added comfort and security by holding plates more firmly. No rumbling, goosy, pasty, taste or feeling. It's alkaline (non-acid). Get FASTEREETH at any drug store.

You Get GREATER VALUE for Your Dollar BECAUSE OF ADVERTISING

Because Advertising... brings you news about better products you need... tells you where to get what you want when you want it... makes lower prices possible through mass production and mass selling.

Yet picture how little all this costs

For instance, it costs less than 1/3¢ a dozen to advertise the big-name brand of oranges. Any other method of selling would cost the growers more and therefore raise the price. Otherwise they wouldn't use advertising.

h next entered dummy with n of hearts to lead the of spades. East covered the king of spades, and won with the ace. Declarer indulged in some careful t before proceeding with aces. The opening lead was ob- a doubton. The play diamonds indicated fairly that West had started with three cards in that suit. West originally held five rds and eight black cards. West started with three and five clubs? This did em likely, since West would ed a club from a five-card lead of attacking the heart which dummy had bid and South therefore came to conclusion that West had 1 with four cards in each of ack suits. th needed all four spade to make his contract and d just decided that West ally held four spades. The were West held the nine his length in the suit, so led the eight of spades from nd and let ride as a finesse. In this well-planned finesse ided, the English declarer his game contract.

Youngsville Wins From Elks; Merchants Beat Business School in Sunset Loop Games

Youngsville Merchants' Sunset Loop game played at 7:30 p.m. last night into 18 runs and the Elks a crushing 19 to 0. Sigworth went the distance for Youngsville, allowing only 5 runs in 5 strikeouts, and helped by two double plays. His team also gave an 8 run cushion in the first 5 on which to work out the lead. This gave Youngsville the 5, 19 to 0.

A game played at North Warren Business School 11:30 p.m. last night. Dick Baker pitched a two-run game for the Merchants, but the Elks scored three in the 6th on three errors, a walk and a hit. Dave Bevevino provided Merchants with a three-run lead in the first when he smacked a home run. The Elks, however, won the game, hitting three for four and driving in four tallies. The game was called in the top of the 7th, and the score reverted to 19 to 0.

Davey Anticipates Crack at the Title

Detroit (AP)—Chuck Davey, the thoughtful scholar of pro boxing, looks forward to bigger things today. And now that he's brushed past Chico Vejar for the second time, the bigger things include a crack at the world's welterweight title.

Davey, the 147½ pound Michigan State College graduate student, knocked out Vejar, 149½, at 1:58 of the fifth round of their scheduled 10-round televised battle last night before 11,341 fans at Olympia Stadium.

"I kept trying to set up Vejar for my body punch," said undefeated Chuck, who now hopes to meet Carmen Basilio and Billy Graham before going on to a title fight. "It was harder this time than when I beat him in Chicago May 7 but I finally got an opening in the fifth."

Davey will fight Basilio July 16 in Chicago, although there's an outside chance the fight may be held in Detroit.

The first stable for White House horses eventually became a school in 1821 for the poor children of Washington.

Sugar Ray Robinson Collapses In Yankee Stadium Steambox At End of 13 Valiant Rounds

By MURRAY ROSE
New York (AP)—The glorious ring career of Sugar Ray Robinson may have come to an end in the blast furnace heat of Yankee Stadium—just two rounds away from victory over Light Heavyweight Champion Joey Maxim and a third jewel for his gleaming crown.

Steaming 103-degree heat melted the taut flesh off the lean middleweight king and burned out his resistance after 13 rounds of a valiant, winning effort. He collapsed and the victory went to Maxim.

"Ray was going to call it quits if he won decisively," said June Clark, a longtime friend of Ray. "Now this could be it too. I guess." Robinson had been bidding to become the third fighter ever to win three championships and join Ruby Bob Fitzsimmons and Hammerin' Henry Armstrong in the ultra-elite of the ring.

Washington Gives Threat of Making History in League

By RALPH ROSEN
AP Sports Writer
"We won't finish last."
That's what Bucky Harris, general manager of the Washington Senators stated firmly in February.

"I don't know where we'll finish. We'll win more games than we did last year."
Washington fans weren't exactly jumping up and down over the Senators' outlook for 1952. There were too many holes to plug.

But Harris, by astute manipulations in the trade market, has more than kept his word. The Senators are a country mile from last place and are threatening to plunge into the American League pennant race.

Victors in only 62 games last year, the Senators scored their 32nd triumph yesterday, outlasting the cooled-off Chicago White Sox, 9-6, in 10 innings.

The triumph enabled the Senators to sweep a three-game series. Before the series Chicago had won six out of seven from the rising Nats.

Jackie Jensen boomed a two-run homer to run his hitting streak to 11 games while Tom Ferlick picked up the win in relief with the help of Don Johnson. The Senators scored four runs in the 10th with the help of three walks off Marv Grissom and an error by Chico Carrasquel.

The victory enabled the Senators to take over fourth place and move to within four games of the league-leading New York Yankees, who dropped a 10-9 decision to the Browns in St. Louis.

Rookie outfielder Bob Niemi broke up the game, played in 100-degree heat, with a two-out homer in the eighth inning.

The loss cut the Yanks' lead to 2½ games over the Boston Red Sox, who moved into the runner-up slot by trouncing the Detroit Tigers, 10-3, while Cleveland's erstwhile second-place Indians bowed to the Philadelphia Athletics, 11-9.

Brooklyn maintained its four-game National League advantage over New York, as Carl Erskine, making his first start since his no-hitter against Chicago, went all the way to beat St. Louis, 3-1.

The Dodgers got only four safeties but one was a three-run homer in the fourth inning by Roy Campanella.

Whitey Lockman singled home Sal Yvars from third base with two out in the eighth inning to break a 2-2 tie and give the Giants a 3-2 nod over Cincinnati.

Big Max Surkont and Sid Gordon teamed up to lead the Boston Braves to a 5-2 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The Chicago Cubs snapped their nine-game losing streak by defeating the Philadelphia Phillies, 4-1.

JOE PAGE SIGNS TO PLAY AT SPRINGDALE

Pittsburgh (AP)—Joe Page, who saved many a baseball game for the New York Yankees as a relief pitcher, has signed a contract to play with his home town team at Springdale, Pa., in a semi-pro league.

Page left the Yankees a few seasons ago and only two weeks ago was released by the Cuban League. He returned home Tuesday. His wife said: "Joe still like baseball and he thought as long as he wasn't doing anything now he might as well play with Springdale."

NEW WOMEN'S WEST PENN GOLF CHAMPION

Cambridge Springs (AP)—Mrs. John S. Haskell of Wanango Country Club, Reno, is the new Women's West Penn Golf champion. Mrs. Haskell won the title yesterday with an eight under par 158. She fired a 78 on the opening day and covered the final 18 holes in 80. Mrs. Thomas E. Nolan, New Castle, was second with 159 and Mrs. Lee Mason, Edgewood, third with 80-82-172.

Fact No. 1

Model for model—costs less

Stack up a Chevrolet truck against any other truck with comparable specifications, capable of handling the same payloads. You'll find the Chevrolet truck lists for less and brings you great features.

Fact No. 2

Mile after mile at rock bottom cost

Truck users everywhere have proved that Chevrolet costs the least of all to own and maintain. Valve-in-Head economy, in the Loadmaster or Thriftmaster engines, saves on gas.

Fact No. 3

Right truck for the job saves money

Chevrolet trucks are factory-matched to your payload requirements. You don't waste money by buying "too much truck"—you don't risk work interruption by buying "too little truck."

Fact No. 4

Lower, slower depreciation

Records show that Chevrolet trucks traditionally bring more at resale than any other make which costs about the same new. The market value of Chevrolet trucks stays up because the value stays in.

Strange Passage

By William Lynch

Chapter Nine

There came an eager set of steps from the direction of Five Ways. The metallic sounds were clumsy and erratic and full of impatience and the old houses in Grover Street threw back the sounds dully. At the crest of the hill the walker sat down on the nearest patch of grass and rested from her labors.

From her bag she clumsily produced a cigarette. It burned away rapidly with the fierce, impatient abstractions and within a space of three minutes it was discarded. Immensely relieved, the woman came to her feet and brushed the shreds of dead grass from her skirt. Then she squared her shoulders and set an uncertain course for Number Thirteen. She half lurched against the solid, wooden door and clawed for the heavy knocker.

Paul Gardiner, pale and disheveled, opened the door and led the woman into the room. She swayed to the lounge chair and with a sigh of contentment sprawled into it and stretched out her legs.

Gardiner stood above her and a cynical smile creased the corners of his lips.

The woman slanted her head and gave him a sidelong glance.

"Where's the girl friend, Paul?"

"Out."

"Funny. And you just married."

"You know me, Kate. I do strange things."

"You sent her out?"

"Yes."

"Because you were expecting me?"

"Right again. They told me you were at the Arms all day. I reckoned you'd be coming this way sooner or later."

"You didn't want her to see me—like this?"

"You're right on the target tonight, Kate."

"You must love her, Paul."

"Maybe I like her," Paul said, without expression.

"O.K. honey—so you like her. You like her so much you sign her up permanent. You get married, you?"

"That's right, Kate. That's how much I like her."

"It's funny, that," Kate said. "I'll mix you a drink," he said evenly.

Kate's eyes devoured his every deliberate movement. She quickly gulped down the fluid.

"You were saying, Kate?"

"You know, Paul, she drawled, "I've had it—and I just don't care!"

"You're not drunk, Kate. A little washed-up. Let me get you another."

Gardiner measured out a double ration of overproof and handed it to the woman.

"What about you, honey? Where's yours?"

"You know I seldom drink at night, Kate."

Kate broke into laughter.

"Here's lookin' at you, sport." She swallowed the drink. Gardiner contemplated her earnestly then he said:

"Why did you come here, Kate?"

The other returned his stare.

"Don't you know?"

"No."

"You're a liar, sport!"

Gardiner looked down upon her with undisguised contempt for several moments.

Kate faced him squarely.

"I make you sick now—is that it?"

"That gets close to it, Kate."

She lurched to her feet and came towards him. Suddenly she clenched both fists and swung them into his face with all the force and venom that she could muster and she sustained the attack until Gardiner drew back his right fist and sent it crashing into her half-open mouth.

The woman reeled and fell sobbing to her knees.

Gardiner looked down curiously at her and then assisted her to her feet.

"You had it coming, Kate."

Kate dabbed the edges of her lips with a handkerchief.

"Especially since you married Melande, is that it?"

"Exactly."

"It's because she's educated and refined and nice and she's got all those things you've always wanted and never had."

"That's about it."

The woman examined the red marks on the handkerchief.

"Does she know what kind of a man you are, Paul?"

"I hope not. I didn't tell her."

"You shouldn't've slapped me in the mouth, Paul."

"I'm sorry. You had it coming."

"An' so have you got it coming. That's one thing you'll pay for, sport."

Gardiner's eyes swam blue in the clear light.

"I hardly think so, Kate. After to-night I'll probably never see you again. We're leaving for the country to-morrow."

"After to-night you probably won't be seein' Melande neither. I'm stayin' right here till she comes in."

"What for?"

"I told you—I don't like being slapped in the mouth. I think maybe your little china piece might be interested to know that her boy friend once spent two years in a mental home."

"You wouldn't do it?"

"When a woman's in the kind of spot I'm in she'll do just about anything."

Gardiner unlatched the door.

"Come along, Kate. I'll take you home."

"It ain't as easy as that, Paul. I said we was stayin' here 'til the bride elect arrives."

"I warned you once not to make trouble, Kate."

"Why?"

"You see, Kate, I'm breaking loose. You wouldn't prevent me from being happy, would you? You won't make any trouble. You'll give me a break. Melande is a lady."

"And what am I, Paul?"

"You? A little sewer rat. A funny little creature of the streets! You'd drag me down to the sewers with you, if you had the chance."

Gardiner's fingers were painful upon her neck.

"Let me go, Paul. You're mad!"

"Maybe so. But not mad enough to let you get away with this!"

"I'll scream for help!"

"Then scream!"

The thick nail-less fingers pressed hard against the cords of her neck and clung there until the face of the woman colored to a deep red and it wasn't until the tightness went from her eyes that the fingers relaxed. The figure of Kate wilted and slid to the floor.

Outside, Grover Street was deserted. Bearing the body of Kate, he kept well within the street shadows and moved swiftly towards Wade's Hole. Skirting the playground he reached the Hole from its door, western end and quickly thrust his burden over its edge. He was about to move away when he saw at his feet the broken white rose that the woman had been wearing. With a quick, angry movement of his foot he sent the crushed flower down into the melancholy pit.

Future Farmers Of Co. Enter Contest

Five Future Farmers of America of the Sugar Grove-Farmington High School enter 15 birds each at Butler, Friday morning in the Pennsylvania "Chicken-of-Tomorrow" contest sponsored by the Pennsylvania State Poultry Federation.

Richard Farver, teacher of Agriculture, reports that Leslie Firth entered the contest with 100 straight-run chicks; Marion Abbott, Robert Warner, Harold Spink and Robert Chase, each with 50 sexed cockerels. All boys selected the White American Breed. The chicks were hatched April 7th at the Pennsylvania Farmers' Hatchery, Lewisport.

Each boy is selecting 15 birds from the total raised for his final entry of 15 at Butler. The birds will be dressed and judged Friday, at Butler, Pa.

The five best entries from each of the four regional dressing plants will enter the final state contest at Coatesville where they will be judged Saturday, June 28th. The Butler entries will all be sold at auction Monday morning at the Butler Cooperative Egg Auction, Inc., Butler.

Some of the Sugar Grove boys expect their entries to go over 60 lbs. liveweight for the 11½ week growing period.

This is the seventh year for the state contest. The purpose of this contest is to produce a high quality product with less time and cost involved.

SUGAR GROVE-LANDER PROJECT IS PLANNED

State Senator L. E. Chapman has received a letter from E. L. Schmidt, secretary of highways, stating that the Highway Department will advertise and receive bids Friday, July 25 for the improvement on Legislative Route 279, Section 3R, Traffic Route 59, Farmington and Sugar Grove townships.

The length of the project is 3.89 miles and the construction will consist of widening the existing pavement with a granulated slag base five feet and variable in width and surfacing the new base and existing pavement with a bituminous surface 20 feet wide; the extension of two existing structures; the paving of stream bed through existing bridge and surfacing the existing bridge floors with a bituminous surface.

FINE STILL IN THE THINKING OVER STAGE

Wilkes-Barre (AP)—Gov. John S. Fine told Luzerne County's 411 Republican committeemen last night he still is in the "thinking it over" stage of selecting his choice for the Republican presidential nomination.

"I know we could make this a memorable occasion for Luzerne County if I could tell you whom we are for," said the governor in addressing the biennial County Republican Convention.

That was the only reference Fine made to the GOP nomination fight.

Delegates to the convention re-elected Prothonotary Olin W. Evans to a third term as county GOP chairman.

She is survived by the one daughter in Warren, Helen Pendleton Rockwell, 504 Third avenue; by one son, Edgar Rockwell, Denver, Col.; and by one sister, Mrs. Florence Fay Valiant of Carvel Hall, Annapolis. There are four grandchildren, Mrs. Lavinette Shear of Coronado, daughter of Mrs. Rockwell and with whom Mrs. Pendleton made her home; Jack Pendleton, Joseph H. Pendleton II, and Mrs. Fay Pendleton Stoddard, children of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Pendleton; and three great-grandchildren.

The widow of General Pendleton, despite her advanced age, had been in good health until she suffered a stroke early in May, and had never regained consciousness.

The Joseph H. Pendleton Detachment of the Marine Corps League in Warren, named in honor of the late general in tribute to his daughter because of her residence here and her deep interest in the local unit, has sent a beautiful floral piece in the form of the Marine Corps seal, to San Diego.

Beyond a statement by Rep. Halleck (R-Ind.) yesterday that the strike would be settled within a week, there was no apparent indication of any union shop compromise. Halleck, refusing to elaborate on his prediction, said it came from the highest sources.

Annual Flowers Sown Late Take Less Time to Bloom

Early summer is not too late to sow flower seeds in the garden. By choosing varieties which germinate quickly and grow fast, flowers may be had almost as soon as from seeds sown much earlier, which may have been delayed by cold weather.

For best results seeds should be sown where the plants are to grow, so they will suffer no setback from transplanting. Since hot, dry days may soon arrive, special precautions should be taken to prevent crusty of the soil, and drying out.

Loosen the soil to a depth of six inches, spading under 2 to 4 pounds of plant food for each 100 square feet. Mix small seeds with dry sand to help scatter them well. Large seeds of plants which need plenty of room may be sown two or three seeds in each spot where a plant is wanted, to be thinned out later to a single plant.

Cover the seeds lightly, with porous soil containing no clay. A special covering soil may be prepared by mixing fine top soil or peat with an equal amount of sand or vermiculite. Keep the soil moist by sprinkling with a fine spray until the seeds germinate and the plants begin to grow well.

Annual flowers which germinate within five to ten days after sowing include the following:

Sweet Alyssum, Amaranthus, Aster, Calendula, Calliopsis, Candytuft, Celosia, Centaurea, Cheiranthus, Cosmos, Dianthus, California Poppy, Godetia, Linaria, Lobelia, Lupinus, Marigolds, Nicotiana (flowering tobacco), Annual Phlox, Portulaca, Mignonette, Schizanthus, Viola, Zinnia, Nasturtium.

The fastest growing annual is leopoldium Stillmanni, producing yellow daisies, which flowers in five weeks from the time seed is sown. In two more weeks zinnias will be in bloom. The slowest growers are the quick germinating group of asters and calendula; but these will begin to flower in late August, and continue through the fall, when cool weather is to their liking, and they produce their best flowers.

Giant zinnias are still most popular; with the super-giant strain leading because of the pastel colors of its blossoms. It is only obtainable in a mixture, but all the colors are harmonious, and they are lovely both as cut flowers and in the border. The small, bushy plants of the lilliput and pumila zinnias are growing rapidly in favor. There are pink, red, orange, yellow and lavender varieties.

Marigolds may be obtained in sizes varying from the tiny single flowers, half an inch in diameter, which cover the dwarf bushy plants in the variety group, to the huge six-inch globular flowers of the Sunset Giants variety.

Crossett to Build Dairy - Queen Store

What's happening along Route 62 at Venturatown was finally solved this morning when it was learned that Ludwig Peterson, local contractor, was awarded a contract for the construction of a Dairy Queen Store.

Robert Crossett, long associated with the Industrial Oil Corporation, and owner of the property, will erect the building and will lease it to Mr. and Mrs. George L. Biehls, formerly of Ridgway and St. Marys. The Biehls are co-owners of the Dairy Queen franchise for this section of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Biehls said the store would open late in July and will be the first of several to be operated in this area. Service will be of the drive in-window service type and the store will handle many ice cream products including bulk cream, cones, milk shakes, and sundae.

The store will have a modern plate glass front and the very latest of modern equipment throughout. An extensive advertising campaign will be launched prior to the official opening.

Falkons Are Beaten By Hamilton, 10-9

By The Associated Press
The Olean Yankees of the PONY Baseball League spanked the cocky Hornell squad last night, handing the league leaders their first twin loss of the season.

And Olean laid it on hard. They smacked the Dodgers 10 to 0 in the opener and walked away with the second, 13 to 4.

Elsewhere in the league, last night's action was as hot as the weather. Hamilton edged Jamestown, 10 to 9. Corning dropped Wellsville to the cellar with a 12 to 0, shutout. Bradford won its first twin bill of the season, beating Batavia, 6 to 1, and 9 to 4.

For the information of readers anxious to know what units were awarded prizes in the Columbus Firemen's parade last week we reprint the following from the Corry Journal:

Despite rainy weather Saturday evening, approximately 1,000 persons were on hand to view the parade which launched the concluding evening of the fourth annual Columbus Firemen's Festival.

Following are the units which paraded through the community, ending at the show grounds where the winners of the competitive events were announced: Wattsburg Drum and Bugle Corps, Clymer High School Band, Harborcreek Firemen's Band and the Russell Firemen's Band, Columbus Boy and Girl Scouts and Cubs and Brownies Corry VFW color guard and firing squad, Stanford Hose Company and two trucks, Union City Fire Department and Auxiliary, North Warren Volunteer Fire Department, Clymer VFD and marching unit, Bloomfield VFD, Russell VFD and marching unit, Clarendon VFD, Lawrence Park VFD, Sugar Grove VFD and the Pleasant Township VFD.

Six floats entered by the Veterans Used Cars, U. S. Mail, Orrin A. Kinney, Messenger's Red and White Store, Cliff Bussink's Motor Sales and the Columbus Milling Co. also took part.

Following are the prize winners: best drum and bugle corps—Wattsburg; best band—Russell and Harborcreek; best equipped truck—North Warren and Youngville; best appearing auxiliary—Union City and Russell; best marching unit—Clymer and Russell; oldest fire truck—Corry; most men in line—Clymer and Russell; fire truck from the longest distance—Lawrence Park; best appearing float—Orrin Kinney, U. S. Mail and Columbus Milling Co. Prizes were also awarded to the four scout organizations taking part.

W P L REPORTING

The big question in placing memorial books is: Should the book be a reflection of the interests of the person in whose memory it is given or should it be simply a book the library needs? The librarian takes a firm middle stand, fighting off a deluge of books on birds, flowers, gardening, religion and baseball on one side; and, on the other hand, taking pains to find books that will be suitable both as to permanence and quality. It becomes a touchy problem, sometimes—but we're everlastingly grateful for the memorial books. Don't doubt that for a minute!

The latest books in the Memorial Collection include:

For Emma G. Bell—Footloose in Switzerland, by Sutton.

For George W. Campbell—Land for Tomorrow, by Stamp.

For Mrs. James A. Connelly—Thomas Jefferson, Scientist, by Martin.

For Carl W. Elmquist—Return to Morality, by Tobey.

For Ruth Harder Fenstermacher—The Desert Year, by Krutch.

COLE HILL

Cole Hill, June 25—Miss Nelthe Wentworth writes a very interesting letter this week from Salem, Ore., about the 41st annual Strawberry Festival held at Lebanon, Ore., on June 5-6-7. Featuring the festival was a large shortcake which Miss Wentworth had a taste of "The World's largest cake" sold at the Lebanon Kiwanis Club concession stand all during the festival. The shortcake was a huge one, measuring 12 ft. by 16 and 4½ ft. high pyramid style containing 2,500-lbs. fresh strawberries, estimated enough to serve 12,000 people.

Lebanon is located 40 miles from Salem. This shortcake was the 13th one made since the town started their Festivals.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Martin celebrated their wedding anniversary Saturday June 21st.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Waite and daughter, Lucile and Roy, of Jackson Run, were visiting old friends on the hill Sunday. Mr.
